4. Press the Right Key for Existing Bookings

To manage or inquire about a booking, press the appropriate number indicated by the IVR.

5. Enter Booking Details (if prompted)

Have your itinerary number or email address ready, as Alaska Airlines might request this to verify your account.

6. Choose the Type of Assistance Needed

Options often include hotel reservations, flights, car rentals, cancellations, and refunds. Choose the right one to be directed to the appropriate department.

7. Press "0" to Reach a Live Agent

If you're unsure which option to choose, pressing "0" often redirects you to a live representative.

8. Wait Patiently on Hold

Depending on call volume, you might have to wait. Use speakerphone to free your hands while waiting.

9. Use Alaska Airlines App or Website

While on the phone, log into your Alaska Airlines account on the app or website. It may help expedite your issue when speaking to the agent.

10. Verify Your Identity

When connected, be ready to confirm personal information such as your name, booking ID, email, or phone number.

11. Clearly Explain Your Concern

Describe your issue concisely to help the Alaska Airlines customer service agent assist you efficiently.

12. Take Notes

Write down the representative's name, call time, and any resolution steps or confirmation numbers provided.

13. Ask for an Email Confirmation

If changes or refunds are made, ask the representative to email you the confirmation.

14. Request Escalation If Necessary

If the agent can't resolve your issue, politely ask to speak with a supervisor.

15. Follow Up If Needed

If your concern remains unresolved, call Alaska Airlines customer service number 1-888-521-6733 again and reference your previous conversation.

Bonus Tip: You can also reach Alaska Airlines through their Help Center online or via chat, but calling Alaska Airlines customer service number 1-888-521-6733 is usually faster for urgent issues.
